To declare the Spanish minor, a student must first file an "intent to minor" form on WebStac. The student must then request an appointment with the Director of Undergraduate Studies in Spanish for review and approval of his/her minor program. Please note that the online filing of the "intent" form is only the first step in the approval process, and that the meeting with the Director of Undergraduate Studies is the required second step of the minor declaration process.

The Spanish minor includes 18 units, of which 12 must be taken in residence. Students must complete courses with a grade of B- or above and maintain a B average or better overall in Spanish. Courses taken Credit/No Credit (Pass/Fail) do not count towards the Spanish minor.

These 18 units must be fulfilled as follows:

Advanced Grammar and Composition (6 credits)

- Spanish 307 (or elective if placed in 308E)
- Spanish 308E Advanced Reading and Writing (Spanish 308E is now offered instead of 308D).
- Students who place out of Spanish 307 on Washington University’s placement exam and consultation with the Director of Undergraduate Studies receive back credits toward graduation, which do not count toward the minor. These students will need to take another advanced (300- or 400-level) course to obtain the three credits typically obtained through 307.
- Spanish 307 is a prerequisite for the 300-level literature surveys.
- Students are strongly encouraged also to take Spanish 308E before registering for the 300-level survey classes.

2 Literature Surveys (6 credits)

Two of the following courses, including one Peninsular and one Spanish American course:

- Spanish 3334 Medieval Iberia: A World With Many Faces, Through Its Texts and Other Cultural Artifacts
- Spanish 3332 Early Modern Spanish Texts: Whose Golden Age Do They Represent?
- Spanish 334 Peninsular Spanish Literature II
- Spanish 335 Spanish American Literature I
- Spanish 3352 From Empire to Nation: Spanish American Literature of the Long 19th Century
- Spanish 336C Spanish American Literature II

* As of Fall 2014, the following three courses will be offered in place of the six mentioned above:
- Spanish 341 Literary and Cultural Studies in Spanish
- Spanish 342 Iberian Literatures and Cultures
- Spanish 343 Latin American Literatures and Cultures

Study Abroad

- Spanish 354 A View from the Southern Cone (Chile)
- Spanish 3341 Literatura Española (Spain)
- Spanish 3361 Literatura Hispanoamericana (Spain/Chile)
Notes for Students Studying Abroad and/or Students Considering the Major in Spanish

• A minimum of two survey courses are prerequisites for all 400-level courses.

• One literature course taken in the Chile or Spain RLL semester programs, designated by the Department as an acceptable substitute, may count as one of the three required 300-level surveys. Students who return from Study Abroad needing to complete one outstanding survey may, with permission of the Director of Undergraduate Studies in Spanish, petition to take an appropriate 400-level seminar in place of the remaining 300-level survey. Students who do not receive approval from the Director of Undergraduate Studies may not take a 400-level course in place of a required 300-level survey course.
